

ASTROLOGY

AND THE EVOLUTION OF CONSCIOUSNESS
WITH MAURICE FERNANDEZ

SEGMENT A

BEGINNERS SERIES

THE COMPLETE COURSE – BEGINNERS SERIES SEGMENT A

Astrology has served humanity for centuries across all cultures. Our ancestors understood that life cycles on the earth are completely synchronized with the greater planetary cycles, the cosmic clock. Understanding these cycles provides clarity, depth, and direction in our personal lives and for the collective.

It is a privilege to be initiated into this rich practice, the primordial and sacred language of the stars. Learning astrology, from the perspective of the Evolution of Consciousness, will provide an unparalleled perspective on our lives, our soul journey, and the reasons for our incarnation. With astrology we can answer greater spiritual questions, but also practical ones such as vocation orientation, relationship dynamics, upcoming trends, and much more.

SEGMENT A – is the first step and does not require any prior background in astrology. It consists of approximately 30 hours of study.

The course will cover the basics of the language of astrology, including meanings of all the archetypes, the planets, the houses. It will enable participants to understand the language and the components of the natal astrology chart.

Once completed, students can choose to continue to the next level—SEGMENT B, and then to the COMPLETE COURSE, Intermediate and Professional Level. (More details on the website)

SEGMENT A includes 17 online videos, or DVDs, a book, and 2 practice sessions through a webinar format (to be scheduled with all students).

COSTS

$450 – Online videos (including book, and 2 practice sessions) – requires an internet connection.

$500 – DVDs mailed to you (including book, 2 practice sessions, and shipping expenses of the files in the USA)

About Maurice Fernandez

For more than twenty years, Maurice Fernandez has been developing a worldwide network as a full-time astrology teacher, counsellor, and writer. He has authored multiple books and collaborative writing projects, and has organized several astrology conferences around the world, notably The River of Stars Astrology Conference in Hawaii. He has forged a reputation of excellence among clients, students, and the greater astrology community. He currently serves as president of the Organization of Professional Astrology – OPA, and most recently introduced the ISAR organization to Israel.

Maurice's essential approach to astrology is holistic and spiritual—He comes from the notion that to properly interpret star knowledge and soul consciousness, we need to address the human experience as a whole. This entails embracing a heart-centered approach, leading a healthy lifestyle, and honoring and respecting nature and wildlife.

Maurice was born in Africa, speaks French, English, and Hebrew and currently resides in Hawaii. He is an active conservationist, notably serving as an advocate for the causes of animal and nature, and is particularly involved in the conservation of the White Lions of South Africa.

Maurice first launched the Complete Course in the spring of 2004 guided by the vision to offer an effective professional training program based on spiritual principles and practical guidance. The program has greatly evolved over the years, including now students from all over the world. Joining the Complete Course involves you in a movement that is dedicated to elevating the standards of astrology and creating a community of people who share high knowledge and great care for life.

With Gratitude, Mahalo!
